In Re the Matter of:
Chang-eon Ahn,
Complainant,
v.
JK Investment & Development, LLC,
Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Order to Show Cause Hearing on May 22, 2023 at approximately 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office in Saipan. Complainant Chang-eon Ahn (“Complainant”) was present and self-represented. Respondent JK Investment & Development, LLC (“Respondent”) was not present but represented by Attorney Colin Thompson. Interpreter Sean Lee was also present and facilitated communications.

II. DISCUSSION

As a preliminary matter, the undersigned must note how ill-prepared both parties were for this hearing. First, while the undersigned recognizes that Complainant is appearing self-represented, it is his burden to prepare and prove each element of his claim. Complainant argued that he was not advised which documents to bring. It is beyond the hearing officer’s duty to establish the claim or advise Complainant how to prepare for their case. Second, while counsel for Respondent appeared for the hearing, the hearing was substantially delayed because counsel was appearing online for a hearing in the Superior Court at the same time. Counsel did not provide any advance notice of this conflict or file a request for a continuance which is a clear disregard for the opposing party, interpreter, and undersigned hearing officer’s time. Counsel argued he was not served with adequate notice of the hearing and did not have time to file. This is not persuasive. A notice was served to Respondent’s designated agent for service of process as of May 8, 2023. For whatever reason this was not shared or communicated with counsel is Respondent’s failure. Further,

1 Counsel submitted an entry of appearance on May 19, 2023 and had months' knowledge of his
2 conflicting schedule. If Counsel could file an entry of appearance, counsel could have filed a
3 request to continue to a later time— which would have been far more appropriate than failing to
4 communicate and trying to appear for both hearings at the same time. Third, Respondent violated
5 the undersigned's order when the company failed to send an authorized representative to appear
6 and meaningfully participate in the hearing. While counsel was present, all parties were ordered
7 to appear. Counsel cannot adequately stand in for the parties when he has no information on the
8 employment relationship or claims. Counsel argued that Complainant was ordered to show cause
9 and it was Complainant's burden. This argument is unpersuasive. The order specifically states
10 that all parties are ordered to appear. While it is Complainant's burden of proof, Respondent was 11 not excused from appearing and participating from the administrative hearing process. Further,
12 regardless of the burden of proof, in administrative hearings, it is the undersigned's duty to 13 develop a full record and that cannot be accomplished when Respondent fails to appear.
14 Considering the Respondent's failure to appear and the serious allegations of unauthorized
15 employment of a foreign worker over the last 2.5 years — justice is served by referring this
16 employer to Enforcement for further investigation of all labor compliance issues and the possible
17 initiation of an agency case against Respondent.

18 With respect to the labor complaint, the undersigned finds that dismissal is appropriate.
19 Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), “the hearing officer may, after notice and an opportunity to be 20 heard is provided to the parties, dismiss sua sponte a complaint that the hearing officer finds to 21 be without merit.” Pursuant to NMIAC § 80-20.2-130(c), dismissal is warranted on the following
22 grounds: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter; (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person;
23 (3) insufficiency of process; (4) insufficiency of service of process; and (5) failure to state a claim
24 upon which relief can be granted. See also NMIAC § 80-20.10485(b). Ultimately, Complainant's
25 arguments and allegations fail to address the deficiencies noted in the Order to Show Cause.

26 1. Complainant fails to establish jurisdiction.

27 “The Administrative Hearing Office does not have jurisdiction with respect to the claims of 28 tourists. Those claims are pursued in the Commonwealth Superior Court.” NMIAC § 80-20.1-450(e). “It is the intent of the legislature that the [Commonwealth Employment Act of 2007] shall not apply to persons admitted to the Commonwealth as tourists, or to persons employed illegally... it is the intent of the Legislature that . . . illegally employed be prohibited from using the terms of this Act to receive or avail themselves of a legal right or benefit.” PL 15-108.

1 Based on the evidence provided, Complainant was not lawfully working for Respondent.
2 While Complainant submitted an Approval Notice to work as a CW-1 in the CNMI, this notice is 3 valid only for a one-day time period of January 14, 2023 to January 14, 2023 and limited to 4 employment with Big Bang Entertainment LLC. There is no showing of a lawful employment arrangement with Respondent and jurisdiction has not been established.

5 2. Complainant fails to state a claim for unpaid wages within the six months statute of 6 limitations.

7 Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4962, “[n]o labor complaint may be filed more than six months after the 8 date of the last-occurring event that is subject of the complaint, except in cases where the 9 actionable conduct was not discoverable upon the last-occurring event.” See also 4 CMC § 9246.
10 “If a complaint is not timely filed, the hearing office shall dismiss the complaint with prejudice.”
11 NMIAC § 80-20.1-465(e) (emphasis added). Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), “the hearing officer
12 may, after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to the parties, dismiss sua sponte a 13 complaint that the hearing officer finds to be without merit.”

14 Here, Complainant initiated a labor complaint against Respondent on May 3, 2023. Therein,
15 Complainant alleges that he was not paid wages for a period of two and a half years and is seeking
16 $144,408.00 in damages. While these claims could be limited to those within the six months
17 statute of limitations (November 4, 2022 to May 3, 2023), there is insufficient information on: (1)
18 a lawful employment relationship; (2) authorization to work the hours sought; (3) an agreed wage;
19 (4) hours worked and when; and (5) how the claim for damages was calculated. Given the degree 20 of speculation required to move forward in this case, the undersigned finds that Appellant fails to state a claim for unpaid wages within the six months statute of limitations.

21 3. Complainant fails to state sufficient allegations to demonstrate an unlawful 22 reduction in force.

23 The applicable law with respect to reductions in force does not take away a company’s
24 business judgement and discretion in initiating mass lay-offs or company closures. Instead, the 25 applicable reduction in force statutes and regulations prescribe a process and necessary notice
26 requirements to do so. “An employer who employs foreign national workers may reduce the 27 number of current employees based on economic necessity. The employer shall provide notice to 28 the Department at least sixty days prior to the reduction in force.” 3 CMC § 4937. See also NMIAC § 80-20.1-240.

1 Here, there is no showing of a mass lay-off or company closure. In fact, there are no
2 allegations with respect to this claim. Instead, Complainant is contesting nonpayment of wages
3 and an alleged reduction in hours. This is not the same as a reduction in force. Accordingly,
4 Complainant fails to show an unlawful reduction in force.

5 III. CONCLUSION

6 Accordingly, pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), this matter is hereby DISMISSED. In the event
7 Complainant can cure the above-mentioned deficiencies, Complainant is granted leave to amend
8 and file a new complaint. The amended complaint, if any, shall be due on or before June 5, 2023
9 and limited to claims from November 4, 2022 to January 3, 2023.

10 In light of the allegations of unauthorized employment or other labor compliance issues,
11 the clerk is ORDERED to copy and transmit the file to Enforcement for further investigation.¹
12 In the event that Enforcement finds a labor law violation or compliance issue, Enforcement may 13 initiate a Compliance Agency Case.

14 Any person or party aggrieved by this Order may appeal by filing the Notice of Appeal form
15 and filing fee with the Administrative Hearing Office within fifteen (15) days from the date of 16 this Order.²

17 So ordered this 26th day of May, 2023.

25 as warranted by the allegations, other information provided or available to the Department, and past complaints or 26 violations. Further, investigators may conduct interviews of the parties and others, request documents from the

In Re the Matter of:)	Labor Case No. 23-010
Chang-eon Ahn,)
Complainant,)	ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT
v.)
Big Bang Entertainment LLC,) Respondent.)

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Order to Show Cause Hearing on May 22, 2023 at approximately 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office in Saipan. Complainant Chang-eon Ahn (“Complainant”) was present and self-represented. Respondent Big Bang Entertainment, LLC (“Respondent”) was not present but represented by Attorney Colin Thompson. Interpreter Sean Lee was also present and facilitated communications.

II. DISCUSSION

As a preliminary matter, the undersigned must note how ill-prepared both parties were for this hearing. First, while the undersigned recognizes that Complainant is appearing self-represented, it is his burden to prepare and prove each element of his claim. Complainant argued that he was not advised which documents to bring. It is beyond the hearing officer’s duty to establish the claim or advise Complainant how to prepare for their case. Second, while counsel for Respondent appeared for the hearing, the hearing was substantially delayed because counsel was appearing online for a hearing in the Superior Court at the same time. Counsel did not provide any advance notice of this conflict or file a request for a continuance which is a clear disregard for the opposing party, interpreter, and undersigned hearing officer’s time. Counsel argued he was not served with adequate notice of the hearing and did not have time to file. This is not persuasive. A notice was served to Respondent’s designated agent for service of process as of May 8, 2023. For whatever reason this was not shared or communicated with counsel is Respondent’s failure. Further,

1 Counsel submitted an entry of appearance on May 19, 2023 and had months' knowledge of his
2 conflicting schedule. If Counsel could file an entry of appearance, counsel could have filed a
3 request to continue to a later time— which would have been far more appropriate than failing to
4 communicate and trying to appear for both hearings at the same time. Third, Respondent violated
5 the undersigned's order when the company failed to send an authorized representative to appear
6 and meaningfully participate in the hearing. While counsel was present, all parties were ordered
7 to appear. Counsel cannot adequately stand in for the parties when he has no information on the
8 employment relationship or claims. Counsel argued that Complainant was ordered to show cause
9 and it was Complainant's burden. This argument is unpersuasive. The order specifically states
10 that all parties are ordered to appear. While it is Complainant's burden of proof, Respondent was 11 not excused from appearing and participating from the administrative hearing process. Further,
12 regardless of the burden of proof, in administrative hearings, it is the undersigned's duty to 13 develop a full record and that cannot be accomplished when Respondent fails to appear.
14 Considering the Respondent's failure to appear and the serious allegations of unauthorized
15 employment of a foreign worker over the last 2.5 years — justice is served by referring this
16 employer to Enforcement for further investigation of all labor compliance issues and the possible
17 initiation of an agency case against Respondent.

18 With respect to the labor complaint, the undersigned finds that dismissal is appropriate.
19 Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), “the hearing officer may, after notice and an opportunity to be 20 heard is provided to the parties, dismiss sua sponte a complaint that the hearing officer finds to 21 be without merit.” Pursuant to NMIAC § 80-20.2-130(c), dismissal is warranted on the following
22 grounds: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter; (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person;
23 (3) insufficiency of process; (4) insufficiency of service of process; and (5) failure to state a claim
24 upon which relief can be granted. See also NMIAC § 80-20.10485(b). Ultimately, Complainant's
25 arguments and allegations fail to address the deficiencies noted in the Order to Show Cause.

26 1. Complainant fails to establish jurisdiction.

27 “The Administrative Hearing Office does not have jurisdiction with respect to the claims of 28 tourists. Those claims are pursued in the Commonwealth Superior Court.” NMIAC § 80-20.1-450(e). “It is the intent of the legislature that the [Commonwealth Employment Act of 2007] shall not apply to persons admitted to the Commonwealth as tourists, or to persons employed illegally... it is the intent of the Legislature that . . . illegally employed be prohibited from using the terms of this Act to receive or avail themselves of a legal right or benefit.” PL 15-108.

1 Based on the evidence provided, Complainant did not have the authorization to work for Big 2 Bang for the entire contested time period. While Complainant submitted an Approval Notice to 3 work as a CW-1 in the CNMI, this notice is valid only for a one-day time period of January 14, 4 2023 to January 14, 2023. There is no showing of a lawful employment arrangement with 5 Respondent beyond that one day, and jurisdiction is not established to all other claims outside of 6 January 14, 2023.

6 2. Complainant fails to state a claim for unpaid wages within the six months statute of 7 limitations.

8 Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4962, “[n]o labor complaint may be filed more than six months after the 9 date of the last-occurring event that is subject of the complaint, except in cases where the 10 actionable conduct was not discoverable upon the last-occurring event.” See also 4 CMC § 9246.
11 “If a complaint is not timely filed, the hearing office shall dismiss the complaint with prejudice.”
12 NMIAC § 80-20.1-465(e) (emphasis added). Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), “the hearing officer
13 may, after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to the parties, dismiss sua sponte a 14 complaint that the hearing officer finds to be without merit.”

15 Here, Complainant initiated a labor complaint against Respondent on May 4, 2023. Therein,
16 Complainant alleges that he was not paid wages for a period of two and a half years and is seeking
17 $144,408.00 in damages. While these claims could be limited to those within the six months
18 statute of limitations (November 4, 2022 to May 3, 2023), there is insufficient information on: (1)
19 a lawful employment relationship for the entire period; (2) authorization to work the hours sought; 20 (3) an agreed wage; (4) hours worked and when; and (5) how the claim for damages was 21 calculated. Given the degree of speculation required to move forward in this case, the undersigned 22 finds that Appellant fails to state a claim for unpaid wages within the six months statute of 23 limitations.

23 3. Complainant fails to state sufficient allegations to demonstrate an unlawful
24 reduction in force.

25 The applicable law with respect to reductions in force does not take away a company’s
26 business judgement and discretion in initiating mass lay-offs or company closures. Instead, the
27 applicable reduction in force statutes and regulations prescribe a process and necessary notice 28 requirements to do so. “An employer who employs foreign national workers may reduce the number of current employees based on economic necessity. The employer shall provide notice to

1 the Department at least sixty days prior to the reduction in force.” 3 CMC § 4937. See also
2 NMIAC § 80-20.1-240.

3 Here, there is no showing of a mass lay-off or company closure. In fact, there are no
4 allegations with respect to this claim. Instead, Complainant is contesting nonpayment of wages
5 and an alleged reduction in hours. This is not the same as a reduction in force. Accordingly,
6 Complainant fails to show an unlawful reduction in force.

7 III. CONCLUSION

8 Accordingly, pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), this matter is hereby DISMISSED. In the event
9 Complainant can cure the above-mentioned deficiencies, Complainant is granted leave to amend
10 and file a new complaint. The amended complaint, if any, shall be due on or before June 5, 2023
11 and limited to claims from November 4, 2022 to January 3, 2023.

12 In light of the allegations of unauthorized employment or other labor compliance issues,
13 the clerk is ORDERED to copy and transmit the file to Enforcement for further investigation.¹
14 In the event that Enforcement finds a labor law violation or compliance issue, Enforcement may 15 initiate a Compliance Agency Case.

16 Any person or party aggrieved by this Order may appeal by filing the Notice of Appeal form
17 and filing fee with the Administrative Hearing Office within fifteen (15) days from the date of
18 this Order.²

19 So ordered this 26th day of May, 2023.

23 ¹ Pursuant to 3 CMC § 4940, the Department’s Enforcement, Compliance, and Monitoring Section has the authority
24 to conduct investigations as the Department may deem appropriate and necessary to ensure compliance with 25 applicable labor laws. Further, pursuant to NMIAC § 80-20.1-470(a), Enforcement may initiate such investigation
26 as warranted by the allegations, other information provided or available to the Department, and past complaints or 27 violations. Further, investigators may conduct interviews of the parties and others, request documents from the 28 parties, inspect worksites, and undertake such other investigative actions as are warranted. NMIAC § 80-20.1-470(a).
Enforcement “may conduct investigations as necessary and appropriate to enforce the provisions of the Commonwealth Employment Act of 2007, as amended, and this subchapter to ensure lawful employment arrangements, payment of wages and overtime, working condition, employer-supplied benefits, and health and safety for employees.” NMIAC § 80-20.1-445. In conducting these investigations, Enforcement “shall have all of the powers delegated [under the Employment Rules and Regulations] and the powers to inspect any records that an employer is required to keep, to make copies of records, and to interview employees.” Id. Depending on the investigation, Enforcement may initiate a consolidated agency action. NMIAC § 80-20.2-455(i).
